

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

Expert on crystallography says diamonds sometimes explode. Sure thing! Narguerite Vandever O'Brien had a diamond ring given her by her young man and one day she got mad at him and threw it on the floor and it cracked up like glass.

Free municipal laundry for the use of poor women of the tenement districts is the latest of Cincinnati's ideas. The sanitary advantage of removing the clothes-washing from the living and sleeping rooms of the tenements is apparent.

Reichstag's petitions commission refuses the suffragettes' demand to wipe out the bar maid evil in Germany, on the ground that it would interfere with freedom of choice of employment. Sort of making women rights buck women's rights, isn't it?
